

INTRODUCTION TO THE WORK HEALTH AND SAFETY ACT

WHY?

- Uniform Laws
- Consistent level of safety
- Common Resources

WHAT CHANGES?

- A new Work Health & Safety Act/Regulations will replace the current NSW OHS Act/regulations

WHEN?

1st January 2012

THE KEY CHANGES IN SUMMARY

New Terminology

- OH&S
Work Health & Safety  WHS
- Employer
Person conducting a business or undertaking  PCBU
- Director/Manager  Officer
- Employee  Worker

THE KEY CHANGES IN SUMMARY

- Under the WHS Act the prosecution will have to prove the case thus abolishing the current reverse onus of proof situation
- Officers of a PCBU now have a duty to exercise due diligence to ensure compliance obligations are met
- Small business owners or employers will have to consult more directly and widely with both workers and other PCBUs on related work activities

DUE DILIGENCE

WHAT IS A PCBU?

- A PCBU is a person or duty holder such as a company or partnership that operates the business
- Examples of PCBUs would be companies, franchisees, self employed, contractors and sub contractors
- PCBUs are not persons employed solely as workers, or volunteer associations who do not employ anyone

WHO ARE PCBUS RESPONSIBLE FOR?

PCBUs are responsible for the health and safety of:

- Workers - but more than just employees. The new Act does not rely on the employment relationship
- Workers could be direct employees, labour hire workers, employees of contractors, apprentices or a student on work experience
- Others who could be affected by the business's activities such as visitors, customers or members of the public

WHO OWES DUTIES TO YOU?

Workers and Others

- Must take reasonable care of own health & safety
- Must take reasonable care that conduct does not adversely affect others
- Must comply, so far as he/she is reasonably able, with instructions

In addition workers must cooperate with reasonable notified policies and procedures

Other PCBUs need to ensure their operations do not create a risk for your workplace or workers

WHAT ARE PCBU_s RESPONSIBLE FOR?

Ensuring the health and safety of workers (and others) so far as is reasonably practicable including all the common general duties such as a safe work environment, safe plant, adequate facilities, information, instruction and training and more specific responsibilities such as:

- Consultation with workers and other PCBU_s
- Resolving WHS issues
- Ensuring the health and safety of others
- Complying with specific regulations that apply to the business
- Notifying incidents

WHAT IS MEANT BY REASONABLY PRACTICABLE?

- Only after consideration of the above points, reasonably practicable takes into account the cost of eliminating hazards or risks

RESPONSIBILITIES: CONSULTATION

You have to consult with all workers who carry out work or who may be directly affected by a WHS matter

- Sharing information with workers on WHS
- Opportunity to respond and to contribute

And also consult, cooperate & coordinate activities with other duty holders who share WHS responsibilities

RESPONSIBILITIES: CONSULTATION

You have to consult when:

- identifying hazards, assessing risks and making decisions about how to eliminate or minimise risks
- making decisions about facilities for welfare of workers
- proposing changes that affect WHS of workers
- making decisions about the procedures for resolving WHS and other issues and monitoring of the work environment

HEALTH and SAFETY REPRESENTATIVE

- Represent workers
- Investigate safety issues
- 3 yr term

RESPONSIBILITIES: ISSUE RESOLUTION

If you have made reasonable efforts to resolve an WHS issue but there is still no agreement you must:

- Follow an agreed procedure if there is one in place
- If no agreed procedure then follow the process set out in regulations
- Set out the agreed procedure in writing and communicate it to all workers
- You may call in an inspector to assist if issue cannot be resolved

RESPONSIBILITIES: INCIDENT NOTIFICATION

If you have a notifiable incident in your workplace you must:

- Notify WorkCover immediately after becoming aware of it (by phone or in writing- quickest means possible)
- Take reasonable steps to ensure that the incident site is preserved until an inspector arrives or until such earlier time as directed by an inspector.
- Keep a record of notifiable incidents for 5 years

RESPONSIBILITIES: SAFETY OF OTHERS

You must also take into account the safety of others who may be affected by your business operations such as visitors, customers and members of the public

- Workers and even “others” also have similar duties not to put you or anyone else at risk

RESPONSIBILITIES: COMPLYING WITH REGULATIONS

- The new Act will be supported by specific regulations covering similar hazards (e.g. manual handling, noise, chemicals) to the current NSW regulations
- Employers will need to comply with these regulations
- The regulations in many cases use the term so far as is reasonably practicable to guide the use of prevention measures

RESPONSIBILITIES: OFFICER DUTIES

- The WHS Act states that if a PCBU has a duty or obligation under the Act, an officer of the PCBU must exercise due diligence to ensure that the PCBU complies with the duty or obligation
- An officer is primarily defined by the Corporations Act

RESPONSIBILITIES: OFFICER DUTIES

To exercise due diligence an officer must take reasonable steps to:

- Acquire health and safety knowledge relevant to the business and keep up to date
- Understand the health and safety risks in the business
- Provide resources to identify and control risks
- Receive and consider information about hazards, risks and incidents
- Ensure the PCBU has process to comply with the WHS Act
- Verify the provision and use of the above resources and processes

RESPONSIBILITIES: WORKERS

Including contractors who work for PCBU are responsible for:

- Observe safety rules, work safely and report hazards and incidents to management or HSR immediately
- Follow the procedures for safe work within the company policy
- Maintain high standards of housekeeping at all times
- Ask for specific training and instruction regarding any hazards associated with performing a task
- Make suggestions and participate in meetings to further the development of a safer working environment
